Memorandum

Letter No. 197 dated 17th March 1872. from the Inam Commissioner.

---

1 Ramasagur Agrahar, not a vestige of which it is reported now remains, sprang up in 1806, under Dewan Poorniah's order, who allotted the same to 12 Brahmins who were given Inam lands in equal shares of the value of Pagodas 90.

2 At first the Inam lands were adjoining the Agrahar site, but for some reasons not stated, the Vritteedars were in 1809 assigned in lieu the village of Karadagaru, bearing a beriz of Pagodas 135-1-11, the difference of the former grant in Inam being charged as Jodee payable to Government.

3 The Sunnuds under which these Inam lands are held enjoin the continuance of the Inam contingent to the residence of the Inamdars in the Agrahar and imparting and improving themselves in religious instructions.

4 In 1838 it was brought to notice by the Amildar that 7 of the number had, tho' enjoying enjoying, breached the condition of the grant by having removed their habitation elsewhere.

5 An enquiry was made of them, when it is reported they urged that the Agrahar situation being unhealthy and unsafe and having other Inams to attend to, they were unwilling to re-occupy the Agrahar.

6 The late Bangalore Division Superttt thereupon, instead of ordering the resumption of the grants which the cases deserved, would appear to have directed the Amildar to refer the matter to the Arbitration of a Punchayet composed of Brahmins and give effect to the verdict, it being at the same time observed that the non-resident Inamdars should pay a moiety of their share of Inam produce to the resident Inamdars. 1835.

7 Nothing however seems to have transpired in the matter after this, probably because the Inamdars had perhaps amicably settled the question of division between themselves until the progress of the Inam investigation to the village in 1871, when the Assistant to the Inam Commr, finding there has been a flagrant violation of the terms 1871

terms of the Summud on the part of the Inamdars who had all removed themselves to distant places with the exception of the holders of one Trittee who lived at a distance of ¼ of a mile from the old Agrahar site, recommended the re=sumption of the village in full.

8 The Inam Commr., after a personal inspection, in modification of the Asstant's views, observed that altho' the old Agrahar site was disadvantageously situated, in conse=quence of which the cultivating ryots would seem to have built houses and removed to a another site ¼ mile distant from the same the Inamdars have not moved themselves with the ryots but betook to distant habitations with the exception of 4 Inamdars who lived in the new village built by ryots and at places no long way off, in a measure fulfilled their duties, decided that these Inamdars should be made an exception, and confirmed in their shares, and that the other shares should be resumed and assessed.

9 In my humble opinion the Inamdars, whose number was originally 12 and now has swelled to 30 shares, have all equally for=feited

=feited their right in as much as they have all acted at their own risk & responsibility without any representation or attempt at pre=vious sanction of Govt. to the steps they have taken of removing themselves.

10 The Government may treat the Inamdars' cases indulgently, and those who have not entirely dis-connected themselves with the village by fixing their abode within its limits or not inconveniently far off from it, are no doubt better entitled to receive such con=sideration than the others.

11 The only redeeming feature in favor of all the Inamdars may be said to consist in this; that the infraction of the terms of the Summud on their part was not promptly dealt with as the case deserved when the matter was first brought to the Superttts notice in 1838, and Govt. may be said to have by its action in a measure acquiesced in the propriety of the Inamdars betaking them=selves to other places on the plea advanced; and the Inamdars have gained a sort of right by Long (nearly 34 years) permission of enjoy=ment of the Inams after their violation of the conditions of the grant had reached to a Government notice.

12. This is in fact what the Inamdars urge in their appeal to the Chief Commr and 9 of them, Nos 28, 29 and 30 in the register and shareholders with No 27 to whom exclusively in the Kittee all the shares concerned, have been confirmed by the Inam Commr as he resided in the village, protest against the decision on the plea that other Inams held by them are shared with No 27 who should not therefore be authorized to exclusive enjoyment in this Inam alone, and it is not obligatory that all the shareholders should live in the same place.

13. It will be perceived from the Inam Commrs letter No 97 dated 15th October 1869, with the accompanying file that in a similar case of breach of conditions of grant by the Kittedars of Chennakasva Agrahar, the Inamdars were given a chance of amending their acts and enjoying their Inams and were allowed 6 months grace to build houses and have their habitations in the Agrahar as as originally, and I think this discretion may be exercised with advantage in the case under notice as much dissatisfaction and vexatious complaints will be put a stop to and the Inamdars after this must feel how lenient the Govt. had been, and the Govt. the satisfaction of having given them the benefit of all doubts.

14 Beyond this, the Inamdars prayer, that the Inams should be treated like personal Inams, could not in my opinion be conceded to, and I think it is not obligatory that all the shareholders in a Vrittee should remain at the Agrahar provided they had arranged with the resident shareholder for the conduction of duty.

4th May 1872. E. P. Sabarpitty

6.5.72 - The terms of the grant are clear, and as the object of such Inams was to establish a permanent community of Brahmins to reside in the Agrahar, I would think that all the Co. Sharers not in the present case, Excepting the

N.V.

due the Islands within 14 of a mile of the Village, have surrendered their rights in the matter, - the object of the Grant being defeated by the Resolution of the Legislature.
Under the circumstances of the case,
I am of opinion that the Grant should be there al-lowed & the Co. Planters in-formed that, unless they es-tablish themselves in the Village within a period of 6 months & make it
their permanent residence,
it will be finally con-sidered. -

The claim of the Co. Planters that the Grant should be treated as a personal Grant is altogether inadmissible, &
the conditions of such Grant should be strictly enforced.

Memorandum

It appears that in the year 1805 the late Dewan Purnaiya established an Agraharam consisted of 12 Brahmin families, near the Ramsagar Tank of the Betamangalam Taluk, and assigned for their support some wet lands situated below the Tank, and also a village called Karadagiri in the neighbourhood. But this being a malarious place, the Brahmins were compelled to leave it gradually and settle down in other localities enjoying however the villages & the lands below the Tank. This state of things continued till the commencement of the Arm enquiry when the Vrittidars were ordered to live in the Ramasagar village on pain of their Arams being resumed. This they have now done by building new houses on a piece of waste land near the Tank and adjoining the present Ramasagar village the original village having been deserted by all the Ryots on account of its unhealthiness. But the present spot also being equally unhealthy the Vrittidars pray that they may be allowed to build their houses at some distance from the Tank but within the limits of the village of Karadapur which was given to them for their support. I consider their request to be a reasonable one, and would submit it for the Arm Superintendent's favorable consideration - the plea of the unhealthiness urged by them being perfectly true. The terms on which the lands were assigned to the Revenue Officers, that they should live in Ramasagar village but this village no longer stands on the same site that it stood when the Agraharam was formed. The village site was changed on account of its unhealthiness, and the Ryots have dispersed though a few live near the Tank. Since I took charge of the district in 1864, the village site has been changed to no less than 3 places, and as sickness still prevails, it is likely that the present village too cannot long remain there.

in

Under these circumstances I think it would be an act of mercy towards these poor people if they were allowed to build once for all in a healthy locality instead of being obliged to shift about with the village.

I believe the conditions of the Sanit^n could be equally well fulfilled at Naudagaw as at the present place. and I submit for the favorable consideration of the Naun^l Comm^d the strong recommend^n of the A Comm^d, with my support after a personal inspection of the Spot with him, on the 11th Inst^t when all the circumstances of the case were fully enquired into. Translation of the petition of Vrittidars of Rama =sagar Agrahar in the Betamangala Taluk praying to bring the following into the favourable Consideration of the Superintendent of Kaveri settlement.

Agreeably to the provision of the Sannad granted by the late Dewan Poorniah, the petitioners ancestors (Sanmodars) lived for several years in the old Rama =sagara Agrahar with their family. The water and climate of that place being disagreable to the health both of the Brahmins and the ryots, Cold and fever attended with several other diseases prevailed to a great extent, causing mortality to the number of about 3 to 4 hundred Nos. Stock robbery also was very rife in that quarter in addition. Most of the ryots that survived this great calamity made their residences in different villages and the rest built their houses at twice, first at the distance of ½ and then ¾ mile from the Agrahar these also, the above enumerated fever in Conse =quence of the unhealthiness of the climate, prevails Causing mortality to a great extent. The ryots under fear of death went away to different villages and the petitioners (Vrittidars) were obliged to abandon the Agrahar removing their quarters to Bétamangala, Kolbagal and Vokaliké. There they Continued to enjoy good health. About the year 1871, the vrittidars removed their residences to the new Ramasagar Agrahar incurring heavy expenses in building their houses, in obedience to the order issued by Captain Cole Superintendent of Kaveri settlement. The enjoyment of good health in this village was of very short duration that is one month only. After which the fever and ague attended with severe head ache vomiting has made their appearance again. Two cases have already been proved fatal. The Deputy Commissioner of the Kolar District and the Superintendent of Guam settlement have personally inspected this unhealthy place this day (4th July) and ordered the petitions to represent their grievances in detail. The unhealthy climate of this locality has been personally inspected by the Deputy Commissioner and the Superintendent of Guam settlement. Moreover Engineer Mr. Brown also had suffered fever in this place.

Captain Cole also has certified in his judgment to the effect of great unhealthiness of this locality.

Under the above circumstances the petitioners beg to represent that there is a village called Karadagoroo at a distance of 1½ mile attached to this Agraharam, and that permission may be granted to the petitioner for building their houses at that village as the climate of that place is very good.

that all the Natives

The village of Karadgiri & certain wet lands in Ramasagara were granted by Diwan Poornaah in 1805 to 12 Brahmin families in 12 shares on condition of their residing in Ramasagara and imparting instruction to the Brahmin Jangams, in default of which the grant was to be resumed.

The grant is valid, but the conditions under which it was made by Devan Poornaiah are the same as those mentioned in case no. 1 on the Register of the Ramasagar, Amanikere. As I have observed there the object of the grant is not fulfilled, the Virtidars having abondoned the Agrahar in consequence, they state, of the unhealthiness of the place and frequent robberies committed there.

2 The holders of one of the Virtis however, Viz. nos 3 & 4 in Col. 15 reside at a Village newly sprung up at a distance of a ¼ Mile from the old Agrahar.

3 As the fulfilment of the condition is so strongly insisted upon in the grant, that any unauthorized deviation from it under any circumstance is, in my opinion, not justifiable. I would therefore recommend that the Village be resumed and declared Sirkari

I am now encamped on the site of the old Agraharum, of which not a vestige remains, It is true that the site of the village of Ramasagur was abandoned, but the Villagers removed their houses only to a few hundred yards off, from which they are now again removing to a fresh site 3 fields off further.

The Sunnud and Dewan Poorniah's nirroop specially stipulate that the Brahmines should reside with their families on the spot; and the latter adds that, if they do not do so and impart lessons as directed, the grant was not to be carried out.

The principal Grantee Hosakote Govindachari and his family removed notwithstanding more than 30 years ago to Hosakote, and the majority of the Vaittidars also removed to Bethamangalam, Moolabagle & other distant localities, and evidently empty themselves in other ways, The plea of the unhealthiness of the locality may be so far admitted but the Vittidars were bound to move with the rest of the villagers, and not to go off to distant localities and employ themselves in other modes. In 1838 the Vittidars who remained complained of the absence of the others, and their shares of the produce were then virtually resumed and added to the others, but this order of the Superintendent was not carried out.

2 Parties 3 and 4, reside in Timmagondanahully the new Ramasagur, and to some extent practise their profession as Brahmines. Their shares are to be confirmed to them on the conditions of the Grant, charging them with a propotion of the old Jodi.

3 Party 26 lives in this Village, tho not in the Agrahar or new Village of Ramasagur, but, as he imparts lessons and instructs in the Vedas his share may, as a special case, be similarly confirmed to him.

4 Party No 27 resides in Surwaraddihalli, which is only a mile from the site of the old Agrahar. His share is to be confirmed and the shares held by his branch of the family, Ns 28-29-and 30 which from a portion of the ½ ~~share~~ of his family should be added and confirmed to him.

5 All the other shares are resumed and fully assessed. The option of retaining the lands as Kundayem should be given to these shareholders and after them to the Ryots, who cultivate them for the Brahmines.

Memorandum

L. R-17- Docket No 1167 of 9th August 1873 from the Survey & Settlement Commissioner.

Attention is invited to the precis marked A of the correspondence in this case. Under the circumstances reported by the Deputy Commr of the situation of the abandoned site and of its unhealthiness under a large tank, which I visited with Captain Cole, while serving in the Inam Commission, the Chief Commr may be pleased to sanction the arrangement suggested by the Inam Superintt based upon the Deputy Commrs recommendation.

The condition of reading védams and offering prayers for the prosperity of the State as imposed in the grant can be fulfilled, whether the house of

of the Vrittidars are on the 145 healthy locality or in the neighbourhood.

If it is insisted that the name of the Agrahar should be perpetuated, the site occupied by the new house may be called under the old designation. It may be asked whether the Inam Commr
proposes to confirm this village
